- iii. For one such selected game/Picture and proceed. You can also use the line drawing tool to estimate the ball position and can see your placed DOT's coordinates/Position (X Position/axis; Y Position/axis) on the screen. You will also receive messages/Mails of coordinates.
- iv. The coordinate details can also be seen in your account under Play History.

GAME OF DOT RULES

Tip-: You can place the ball by noticing/recognizing or analyzing the surrounding environment, positioning of Batsman, wicketkeeper, and bowler in the picture.

Result-:

After the game ends, within 24Hrs the selected panel of Judge(s)/Experts will determine and reveal the correct position of the ball, considering all the circumstances related to the picture of that particular Game. The correct position of the ball as determined by the Panel Judge(s)/Experts is the result of that particular Game. The relevant reference DOT (X.Y Coordinate/Position) is used to determine the winner i.e. the closest Dot which has been placed by a user closest to the Judge(s)/Experts Dot.

Daily Multiple Winners & Winnings-:

Winners-:

The first 559 winners, for Daily game will be the unique participants who have placed their DOT in the same position or as closest to the Panel Judges'/Experts position will be the winners. If two or more participants have placed the DOT in the same position then the time the dot was placed will be taken into consideration, with a preference to the player who placed the DOT first, however, the threshold of number of winners for each game will be capped to 20% of the participant's number who are completely registered and qualified to play the game and have participated in a particular game.
